By the Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

OR MONDE.

ALL persons that shall have occasion to prefer any Petitions to Us, are to take notice, That to such of their Petitions as shall come to the hands of Our Secretary Sir George Lane, they may expect Our Answer, and receive the same within four days after the delivery of the said Petitions at the said Sir George his Office under the Council-Chamber near the Custom-house, whereupon all parties may depend, if extraordinary Occasions shall not intervene, which may hinder Us from giving audience to Petitions. And in the mean time Petitioners are to forbear troubling themselves in calling for their Petitions. And they are further to take notice that when Petitions shall be answered, they shall be delivered out at the Offices of the Secretaries under the said Council-Chamber, and not in the Castle; neither are any Petitioners to resort to the Castle for them, nor by their unseasonable solicitations to hinder Our Secretaries from the dispatch of the businesses committed to their charge.

Given at His MAJESTIES Castle of Dublin, the 29. day of August, 1662.
